Each Tuesday morning at 6:30 AM on WSFX FOX 26, channel 9 on Time Warner and on Charter cable, join us to learn more of the fullness of Jesus and his imminent return. Who is he? What are all the many things he did? And who are we and what can we do with faith in him? And what is all this about his coming soon? (DARE TO BELIEVE! is also broadcast in much of New England and in the Tidewater area of Virginia at other times.)

YES --- HE IS --- COMING SOON:

When the clock struck twelve, Cinderella's clothes and carriage and driver suddenly changed back to what they had been all along – rags, a pumpkin, a mouse.

But that was a fairy tale. It didn't really matter. Just a story. Life on earth is not. And the figurative clock is about to strike twelve.

The return of Jesus Christ to call out his church – e.g., collect his believers – and the beginning of all that is prophesied to happen at the end of this current age is about to happen.

Many on earth however are living the life of Cinderella at the ball. It's all worldly activities - work, games, sports, going to the beach, buying, paying bills, rushing from one activity to another and so forth. As Jesus put it in Luke 17:27 and Luke 17:28 (KJV), describing what people will be doing when he suddenly comes back, "They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage,..., they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded."

In an instant life on earth will change. What are you doing? What will you be doing?

Many of you know that beginning in March 2005 Jesus began telling me to tell people who he is and that he is coming soon. That has occurred many times, with elaboration. That in fact led us to shift the focus of the ministry more towards presenting the aspects of Jesus' return, covering all the while the fullness of what Jesus did and ministering in those areas, such as healing.

The facts are that Jesus Christ is coming very soon, very soon. And by that I mean far sooner than most believers know or expect, certainly much sooner than nonbelievers know or expect. The world as a whole will be shocked and things will change forever.

In the months since I first heard the words about all this, when leaving a friend or relative in another city or leaving a ministry meeting somewhere, I at times wondered if that was the last time I would see them in this life. That is a valid thought. It is also a thought you or I could always have. We on our own – leaving aside the issue of Jesus' return – have no guarantee of continued life on earth. We all know of a relative, friend, neighbor, or other contact who shockingly suddenly died and we were left without them. In relating to others, shouldn't we always live recognizing that the time together is precious and that we might not see each other again when we leave the room?

Shouldn't we seek to fill the days and hours with something meaningful rather than throw away these precious minutes and hours on the drivel that dominates modern life?

The facts are these: God is real, Jesus is real, the Holy Spirit is real, the Bible is true, and Jesus is returning very, very, very soon. Where do you stand on all this?
