- realizing the power of a life in Christ-

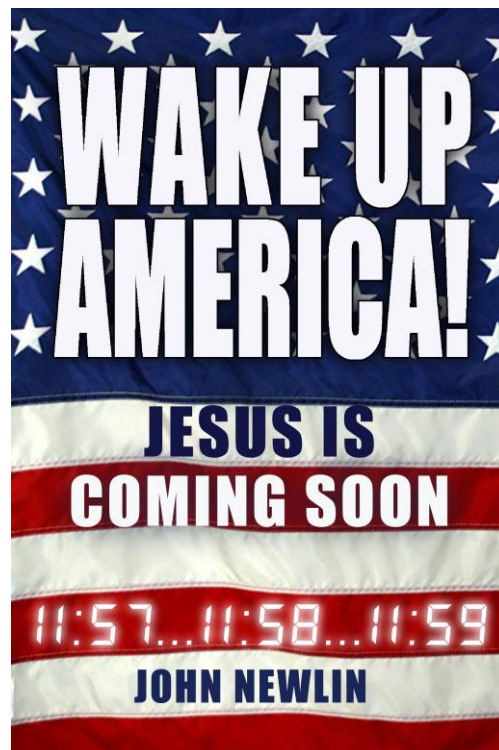

WAKE UP AMERICA! - PREORDER NOW!

Our new book will be rolling off the presses in about a month. Now you can preorder copies so that you will receive it as soon as it is available! To order go to the ministry website or print out the form on the last page of the newsletter.

We thank all of you who have donated in support of the publishing of this book and its promotion and marketing to reach people throughout the country. That last step is really just underway and costs a great deal, but it is essential. How can people get the book unless they know the book is there? We ask for your continuing financial support in this.

This book is for everyone. It is not an academic book, not a Biblical treatise. Rather it is a straight-forward presentation of the facts as to where we are in time, the prophecies that have been fulfilled, and what is about to happen. It is for you and your family and your friends and really all people.

Jesus died for the whole world, you know; but most people are not ready for his return. This book is a jolt, an alert they must have now.

AMERICA NEARS A NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

The end of all things is near. Therefore, be clear-minded and self-controlled so you can pray. – Peter

Watch that you are not deceived. – Jesus

The man of lawlessness, [the anti-christ], ... will come to do the work of Satan with counterfeit power and signs and miracles. He will use every kind of evil deception to fool those on their way to destruction, because they refuse to love and accept the truth that would save them. So God will cause them to be greatly deceived, and they will believe these lies. Then they will be condemned for enjoying evil rather than believing the truth. – Paul

The anti-christ has not been revealed yet, has he? No he has not. But that spirit of delusion is already rampant and at work. Hundreds of thousands in America, even millions, are deluded, lost, confused, not knowing the truth. They are already deceived. And because of that and because some of these occupy key positions in the government and media, the country appears to be having a nervous breakdown.

Why are they so deluded?

The answer is pretty simple. They most likely do not know the Lord, have not been baptized with the Holy Spirit, and do not have the gifts of the Spirit such as the highly valuable one of discernment. In a phrase, they cannot tell truth from falsehood. They cannot discern. And these people occupy all sorts of positions in the government and in both political parties. Evidently, they occupy positions in the FBI and so many other organizations as well.

You can hear their confused babbling daily on the cable news programs where they are interviewed. Or you can read it in various newspapers, some such as the Times and the Post that seem to be almost entirely staffed with such deluded people.

We are in the last of the last days. I have spent years writing about and warning of this. The Lord spoke to me very specifically years ago right in the middle of my preaching to a group and began then and there revealing more and more and pressing more and more about his return and my telling people about that.

We are living in the last of the last days. America at the top – this government we have so long cherished – is staffed with confused and lost people on all sides. The evil one is active in so many places. Truth is a victim in Washington.

There are so many items I could include as illustrations of this confused, lost, evil, falling apart behavior in the country. Consider these points (with commentary inserted for a couple):

- The celebration in New Jersey of the transition of a woman pastor to a “man” at her Lutheran church on Sunday under the oversight of a Lutheran bishop.
- The Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Washington, D.C., voting to pass a resolution that puts an end to the use of masculine pronouns for God as it prepares to update its Book of Common Prayer.

[Comment re the above two points: So many traditional churches and denominations are spiritually lost in this day in which we live. You must be aware of what type of church you are attending. If the actions and services and words taught around you do not agree with the Bible, get out. When the Lord comes, unless things change, there will be many churchgoers and pastors who do not hear his call to join him.]

- California as a state being a haven and protective shelter for illegal immigrants, even criminal illegal immigrants, and not cooperating with the federal government immigration services and the laws of the land.

- California making it possible for illegal immigrants to be registered as voters when they get drivers licenses.
- Sanctuary cities such as San Francisco and New York giving shelter and protection to illegal immigrants and not obeying federal laws.

[Comment re the above three points: The government in Washington likely will have to decide how to deal with extremely rebellious places like California and some of the sanctuary cities. The laws of the land are either the laws of the land or they are not. If citizens do not have rights different from illegal immigrants, we have no nation. (I would remind all of us that if the past recent presidents had enforced the laws of the land we would not have an immigration problem now.)]

- The FBI falling away from its history of taking an above-board and ethical law and order approach to being used now apparently as a political tool – perhaps the most frightening thing of all to have happened recently in the national government.
- The continued massive yellow journalism in America in television news and major newspapers.
- The extraordinary news that way over 90 % of all federal bureaucrats are in one particular political party, meaning that whatever policies are passed they likely will be interpreted by these bureaucrats as favorably as possible to that party's policies (intentionally or not).
- The failure of Christians and conservatives in keeping traditional Judeo/Christian values in the public schools and universities of the country. Those areas are bastions of liberalism, even far left liberalism. That's where political correctness thrives and a lack of understanding of how the country was built and what made it great exists. Christians and conservatives have been asleep as subversive groups have worked tirelessly in these arenas.
- Continued LGBT pressure regarding teaching all children in public schools about the various sexual alternatives - transgender, etc. That has not stopped. This is morally and culturally subversive, teaching kids that all these alternatives are part of the "norm" when they certainly are not and are pursued only by a very minor section of the population. Parents' only recourse is likely to be to take their children out of public schools and home-school or find a private school they can afford.
- Looking outside our borders, the aggressively anti-Israel views of so many of the world's countries are astounding (but not surprising for the times in which we live). God gave Israel the land in the Middle East from the river in Egypt (the Nile?) all the way to the Euphrates River in Iraq. Do you think he is going to be satisfied and pleased with the world or the US pressing Israel to give any of that land to the Palestinians? And to divide Jerusalem? We know from the Bible that no peace plan works. Any peace plan truly accepted by Israel and leading them to think they are living in peace is just a delusion, a masque for the coming attack of Russia, Turkey, and Iran in the Ezekiel 38-39 war.

It would be wonderful to think that in these last days the USA would come together and focus on getting the truths of God out more and more. It would be wonderful to think that when Jesus comes he would find Americans working hard for him. It would be good, wouldn't it? For that to happen we need a grand awakening in Washington and in the rest of the country. We need leaders to be reborn, to come to know the Lord, to wake up.

Only God can help the mess in the government and culture of the country. Only God can help. But his son already gave his life for us. So many people just haven't gotten it. It hasn't registered. They are deluded. They are stuck in falsehood. Anyone who does try to press for truth is roundly attacked by so many from all sides, both politically and from a media that is largely lost.

Time for prayer, for serious prayer in the spirit. Time for a change in what is going on. Pray for people to wake up to God. Pray for God to lead people to Jesus. Pray for that much hoped for but so far elusive end times awakening.

PS Again we thank all of you who support this ministry with your prayers and your donations. It will take a great amount of funds to get this new WAKE UP AMERICA! book out to all who should read it in the country (and hopefully world). Much of our attention now is focusing on this – on promotion, marketing, and distribution steps that need to be taken. This will entail meetings, seminars, radio, television, and more. We certainly need and appreciate your continuing prayers and financial support. Thank you.
