NO NEW BINDING RELATIONSHIPS WITH NONBELIEVERS IN THESE LAST DAYS!

Do not be yoked together with unbelievers. For what do righteousness and wickedness have in common? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness? What harmony is there between Christ and Belial? Or what does a believer have in common with an unbeliever? What agreement is there between the temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God. As God has said:

*"I will live with them
and walk among them,
and I will be their God,
and they will be my people."
Therefore,*

*"Come out from them
and be separate,
says the Lord.
Touch no unclean thing,
and I will receive you." – 2 Corinthians 6:14-17 NIV*

Unequally yoked. Don't be joined together with unbelievers. Joined together how? Well, in marriage is an obvious example. If a person is not yet married, then certainly they should seek not to marry an unbeliever. Of course, often two nonbelievers may get married and then at some point in life, one becomes a believer. Wonderful. But difficult for the relationship.

How about being joined together unequally in business? Being in partnership with an unbeliever? Maybe two lawyers open a practice. Or medical doctors. Or maybe you and others begin a corporation, and you are a believer and they aren't.

This can go on and on. You get the point. It is hard.

Certainly now if we are to work in God's leading others to Jesus we have to be around nonbelievers. We have to go out into the world. Obviously. But we don't have to enter into close legal or personal relationships with them. That is the point.

RAPID GROWTH OF SELF-STORAGE FACILITIES IN THE USA MIRRORS EXTRAORDINARY MATERIALISM

One thing that has amazed me as we have gone through the difficult process recently of moving has to do with self-storage units. We have made use of those storage facilities you see in so many places. They have been a great help – storing ministry materials and equipment, storing some personal items! Really a great help! And quite apparently they are also a great help to small businesses and workers who need some storage place for their tools and supplies.

But here is the point. Everywhere we looked we saw these storage facilities. They are springing up everywhere. And so many are using them. An article from 2018 that I read on this subject says that one in eleven Americans pays for such storage units. Is this just an example of people living in ever smaller homes? Hardly, if you pay attention to all the new residences being built and the size of modern homes.

No, I think it is just a sign of too much stuff. Way too much. From the time we are born throughout our whole lives the advertising media bombard us with all sorts of creative and high pressure sales promotions, commercials, and more. It never stops. Your cell phone is chock-full of ads. Years ago I remember when a half hour television program had a one minute commercial at the beginning, another in the middle, and another one minute commercial at the end. Today you find yourself wondering if half of the program is commercials. Many advertising breaks on programs last three minutes or more.

So many people who live under this bombardment are under constant pressure to buy, to acquire – to be happy, to keep up, to just be one of the gang. And they do. With all sorts of consequences on their personal finances.

Nothing makes you realize you have too much stuff like moving! And having to deal with so much. But seriously, materialism in modern America? Absolutely! Running amuck? Absolutely! Just look around. So many people with so much they need storage units in addition to their homes to hold it all.

READY FOR JESUS' RETURN?

Not too long now. Seriously. Events all around us are fulfilling and leading up to the key moment he returns to collect his sheep and the seven year horror called the Tribulation begins. True believers in Christ are under attack everywhere in the world. At the same time many are coming to faith in diverse places such as India and China and Africa. And Americans? So many apparently do not even recognize what is going on around them - the steady march to the eventual one world government and to a one world religion, both characteristics of the last days. Just how many Americans really are born again and spirit-filled? How many have the gift of spiritual discernment? How many really are being led by the Holy Spirit?

Good questions. Doesn't look like a great many, does it? Jesus knows the answer of course. Our role, and really in various diverse ways the role of all true believers, is to get the truth of the gospel out, to live and minister in the authority and power and revelation he has given us, to go where he would have us and do what he would have us, to be led by the Spirit in all things (see Matthew 28:18-20; Mark 16:15-18, John 14:12-14, John 14:26, and more). Are you doing this? If not, consider praying for more guidance as to how you can fulfill his role for you at this time.

NEVER FORGET THE GREAT TRUTH OF OUR TIME:

Everything is secondary right now to the fact that Jesus is coming soon and that to be in the Kingdom, to go with him, you must be a true believer in him. You must be born anew. Jesus must be your Lord.
