- realizing the power of a life in Christ-

THE TIMETABLE

Surely this is one of the most important articles I have ever written. Below I will be sharing some exciting information I have received regarding the time in which we are living and what we can expect.

The information that I will share below under the heading First and Second Parts was given to me in the middle of the night several days ago. I was about half asleep, and suddenly this vision occurred. I was not in the vision but was watching it all; numbers appeared on what could be described as a white board. Dates were laid out for me. A voice I heard in my head was analyzing the data and developing the information. It was almost as if it was my voice seeing the data and saying, well if this is so, then this must be true, and so on. It was clearly a message from God given in explicit fashion.

This vision interestingly had two distinct parts, each leading to the same conclusion. This two-pronged approach was really powerful in the vision, as it should indeed be.

Just a couple days after this event I spoke with a minister friend in another city who on his own – without my saying a word – said the same thing about the years noted below with the same points! That is no accident. That is confirmation, like the baby in Elizabeth's body reacting to Mary's coming to her when she was pregnant with Jesus.

Before I begin with the vision, let us remind ourselves again we are living in the last of the last days. Massive wide-spread lying is taking place right in front of our faces, and hopefully every believer can see it all in so many places and leaders. Jesus warned of deception in our day. It was his first warning about these times. And the Bible tells of God sending a spirit of delusion on those who just will not accept the truth. It does appear there are quite a few people living in that delusion now, that this has already begun.

There is no need to recount in depth the terrible decisions and policies of the earthly leaders today – the defund the police movement, the policies of so many DA's not to prosecute criminals but to let them out with no bond, the shocking pressure of the national governments to force citizens into certain specific behaviors, the recent action of the Canadian government passing a bill that in effect calls some of the Bible a myth and establishes a basis for sending pastors off to jail for teaching the Biblical view of man and woman and the evil of homosexuality, the extreme behavior of Australia and other countries in clamping down on human freedoms, the crazy pressure in the US on citizens to be vaccinated while hundreds of thousands of unknown persons are let into the country on the southern border and dispersed throughout the land, NY City giving the right to vote to illegal aliens, the incredible rise in crime in the country leading many to think of having to prepare to defend themselves perhaps like in the days of the old west, the increasing inflation and supply problems on earth, and on and on.

The mastermind behind the evil and the deception and the confusion is of course the leader of the kingdom of darkness, the devil. He has been around much longer than you and I. He knows what is going on in time and he is full bore pressing now to draw as many into his lost kingdom as possible and to keep believers from telling others about Jesus. The Lord says the devil is the father of lies, that he was a liar from the beginning. And we are seeing all that play out in so many people who are prey to him. Who are these? People who do not know the Lord and do not know how to defend themselves and their family using the tools God has given us. These dangerous leaders we see now so seeking to dominate and control citizens are godless people.

Our world moves steadily toward the beginning of the tribulation and the eventual one world government. With that in mind, let us turn to the vision I had.

THE VISION AND ITS TWO PARTS, BOTH LEADING TO THE SAME CONCLUSION:

FIRST PART

- 2030 – immediately from the beginning of the vision this date appeared on the right side of the whiteboard. Bold and in red, as all the numbers were. It was obvious I was to realize the importance of that year. And then the analysis began.
- The United Nations is working now on an agenda called 2030, with the goal of bringing all the major facets of life – climate, economy, health, etc. - under one worldwide control by then. [You have seen me write about this UN agenda in recent years.]. That really is what we see playing out right in front of our faces now. They are being joined in this by all sorts of global groups and by countless leaders who truly may not even really know what they are doing.
- That being the case, then, this one-world government in 2030 would have the antichrist at the helm. We know from scriptures in the Bible – in Revelation and Daniel – that the antichrist is present at the beginning of the Tribulation when he brings about a seven year agreement with the Jews and at the end where he leads the forces opposing the Lord at Armageddon.
- With 2030 being the year of the completion of the establishment of the one-world government, it would surely seem that might be the year the Lord leads his Holy Ones down to the battle at Armageddon. Evil will be in charge of the entire world then with the one world government in place.
- If 2030 is the date of Armageddon and thus the end of the Tribulation, then the beginning must be sometime in 2023. Seven years – that is the length of the Tribulation. 2030 less 7 is 2023.

- Following all this to the logical conclusion, that means that Jesus would be coming to gather his believers – his elect – sometime between now and the beginning of the Tribulation sometime in 2023. He will come before believers suffer the wrath of the Tribulation (believers are not appointed to suffer wrath, the Bible tells us).

All this is certainly interesting, and I was following the vision closely. At this point it moved to the second part below to clearly bring home the conclusion.

SECOND PART

- Jesus was born sometime before 4 BC. How do I know that? [Truly, I heard myself – or the “voice,” saying that.] King Herod the Great was King when Jesus was born. He is the one who ordered the boys under 2 to be killed in Bethlehem. King Herod died in 4 BC, so Jesus could not have been born after that.
- Recognizing 4 BC as the latest possible date for Jesus’ birth, he therefore began his public ministry sometime around 26-27 AD, for we understand he was about 30 when he began his public ministry. The 4 years BC (before “0”) plus 26 years AD (after “0”) add up to 30, the age Jesus was when he began his ministry. And we understand he continued in that ministry until he was something over 33 years old, so we can expect he was crucified sometime close to 29 - 30 AD. In the vision the point of 30 AD was clearly made.
- When God created the world he did his work in 6 days and on day 7 he rested. Studying the Bible and all the years various Biblical people lived results in the general understanding today that Adam came into existence about six thousand years ago. So when Jesus was crucified, humankind had been on earth about 4000 years. Two thousand years from the death of Jesus on the cross in 30 AD will be about 2030. (and thus about six thousand years of human existence.). That is a good time for Jesus to lead his heavenly forces down to win the battle of Armageddon and to establish Kingdom rule from Jerusalem for the next 1000 years, the “seventh” day of human existence – the millennial period described in Revelation. And if that is indeed when he does this, the Tribulation must have begun seven years before, in 2023.
- Thus again Jesus’ return to collect his believers would be between now and the beginning of the Tribulation sometime in 2023.

So here we have in two parts a vision that leads to 2030 as perhaps the year of the Day of the Lord, the return of the Lord at the end of the Tribulation to vanquish his enemies and to establish the beginning of the millennial period. And thus sometime in 2023 would be the beginning of the Tribulation, before which Jesus would have come to collect his sheep.

This is powerful stuff I know, and as with all in our ministry I send this out with the endorsement and guidance of the Holy Spirit. This is what I saw and heard and thus understand with all that God has shown me over the years. The key focus of it all was the importance of 2030 and thus everything else follows that.

We are living in extraordinary times. I shared with you years ago words Jesus said to me early in our ministry:

*I am coming soon.
I am coming for my church,
My church is not of bricks and mortar.
My church is not choirs and fine robes.
My church is those who have given themselves to me.*

I have not before shared the next two sentences he said to me then but I share them now:

*Help me find my church.
John, help me find my church.*

I have been trying. I am still trying. Since he has not yet come, there probably still are people out there who are supposed to be in Jesus' church that do not know him yet. We all still need to be about his work, asking the Holy Spirit for divine encounters and guidance in speaking to others about Jesus.

I know this is a lot to read and to take in. For some it may be difficult to grasp. But by now I think true believers can discern the times and realize this current time is not life as usual on earth. This is not normal life or behavior we are witnessing in America and Australia and New Zealand and France and the Netherlands and Germany and so on. These are the last days, and they are getting increasingly difficult. What we are seeing daily is distressing.

In all things keep your eyes on Jesus! And as he strongly advised in Luke 21:36, Watch and Pray! Watch for what? For his return.

NEVER FORGET THE GREAT TRUTH OF OUR TIME: Everything is secondary right now to the fact that Jesus is coming soon and that to be in the Kingdom, to go with him, you must be a true believer in him. You must be born anew. Jesus must be your Lord. (For more guidance on what it takes to be in the Kingdom, read our October 2021 newsletter, see Chapter 11 in our book WAKE UP AMERICA!, or watch our two television programs titled "Getting into Heaven" on YOUTUBE and our website.

May you live in the blessings of God always.

John
