TIME TO STOP WASTING TIME: AN URGENT MESSAGE TO GOD'S BELIEVERS

I have thought to write of the things that are coming soon upon all who walk the earth. Yes it is true of course that God does honor his word and that his believers who are using his word and protection will no doubt be protected by that. But it is also true that the rain falls on the just and the unjust – the Bible tells us that too. So in general the difficulties that are increasing in these last days will fall on all. God's people using his words and truths will no doubt fare better than others, but it will still be a terribly difficult time. And regardless of whatever happens to believers physically, Jesus is never going to lose them. He said that.

We are seeing absolute evil running amuck now. What do you think the government of the US is now but that? Of course there are likely some decent people in Congress and in the staffs of the federal departments, but the leadership of the nation is ungodly. The leadership of many large corporations is also ungodly. And of much of the news media and many universities. Frightening.

Look at the maniacal reactions to the possible overthrow of the Roe vs Wade abortion ruling. Even if that happens, the individual states still unfortunately have the authority to permit or not abortions of various types and timing. Yet these protestors seem to think it is the end of their world. Well, eventually, they will be facing that end, and soon indeed.

Look also at the insane support today for the LGBTQ movement and the teaching and leading of young children into matters of transgender lifestyle. Imagine what God thinks of all that. Well, you don't have to imagine. Just read his scriptures in Leviticus and Romans and in the very last chapter of the Bible where Jesus talks of those who will not be in the Kingdom of God.

Look at the totally irrational thinking of the government as regards energy and global warming. There is no indication the world is about to end in a very few years due to global warming. But the progressive, green movement really believes that. They are terrified by it. That is their "end times." And thus now they have a president and a government that will follow their bidding, and they are throwing the economy of the US into the ash heap in order to change energy supply from the basic hydrocarbon sources like oil and gas to those alternative forms of windmill and solar and such. Anyone would think these alternate sources would be wonderful if they could supply the energy needs of the country. But they can't! They currently account only for a tiny percent of our energy needs! And electricity itself is created by generating plants primarily using hydrocarbon fuels. Electricity doesn't exist readily available in nature. Pushing down oil and gas destroys the economy and society.

Look at all the efforts to control people during the covid problem. Way more people die every year in America from heart disease than covid. Way more people die every year in America from cancer than from covid. Why this massive effort to control? Just to use the fear and media to increasingly gain control of the people. Don't be surprised to suddenly see another big bizarre disease arriving soon. Besides, pestilence is a basic sign of these last days.

Look at the terrible increase in food prices worldwide. Look at the problems caused by the Russia invasion of Ukraine and thus the lack of fertilizer for farmers and the great reduction in availability of grains for the world. This is a coming giant problem. And remember, famine is a sign of the last days.

Look at the enormous efforts of the progressive politicians and the woke movement to control and stop free speech everywhere, a movement totally opposed to the fundamentals of America and of course to truth which is a fundamental aspect of God. God is truth.

Look at the failure of the national government and many local governments to enforce the laws against terribly violent criminals and groups that are making a mockery out of law and order in many areas.

Look at the nonsensical mass killings of elementary school children in Texas.

We are at the end of the age. I want to tell you more, to share more. So many people just don't know or don't want to hear. So many people just are intolerant of the truths of the Bible and of God. So many are scared to speak up.

We who know the Lord and who are guided all the time by the Holy Spirit must speak up, we must stand up for Jesus, we must call out falsehood. We have to go forward as the Lord would have us right up to the end.

Don't be terrified. Don't be scared of these times. Use the protections God has for you – your ability in Jesus' name to cast out evil spirits, to heal the sick. Put on the armor of God. Thank God for the angels he has sent to serve you. No doubt that service includes protection.

The evil forces are at work right now. You should be able to discern evil wherever you go if you are filled with and baptized in the Holy Spirit. That gift of discernment is one of the gifts of the Spirit. Use it now. Don't let it lie dormant.

The evil one is running amuck. Many pastors are afraid to preach and teach the truths of the return or to speak of the terrible evils of our government today. Some thankfully are not and are bold in the Lord. Your relationship with Jesus is one-on-one. You and Jesus. He is your Lord. So listen and seek his guidance. Do what he would have you do.

As we get closer and closer to the end, I expect all believers will experience more and more attacks – physical, financial, spiritual, otherwise. Whatever the evil one can bring about. You've got to protect yourself and your family. Use those tools God has given you. Even if you are successful in protecting yourself, the evil one will try to get at you by attacking those close to you or perhaps your work and livelihood.

The devil knows this is it. He can read the Bible!

You see, evil is real. The devil is real. The bible is true. The last days are real. We are living in them. I have walked into a large room where the evil was so thick it felt as if I could cut it with a knife. I have been in meetings where key people were surely guided by the evil one. And thanks to God I am still here. I don't recommend seeking out directly fights with the evil one and his minions, but I do say you must protect yourself and you must fight when attacked.

I am personally tired of seeing so many people I meet living as if everything is fine in the world or that nothing out of the ordinary is happening. It is wearying to encounter so many lost people and wonder how to get their attention. But I do keep trying. And yes I do know Jesus' words about few are they that find the path to life. Not everyone gets into the Kingdom of God. Not everyone is in God's elect, the people he chose before the beginning to be in the Kingdom. But we don't actually know everyone God has chosen to be in the Kingdom, so we can't not try to tell all about Jesus. All of us must daily ask the Holy Spirit for help in this. He will orchestrate and set up divine encounters and give us words to speak.

When you do encounter someone who does not know the Lord or whom you think may not, ask them if they are ready to go with Jesus when he comes soon. Do they know they will go. And then regardless of what answer they give, unless it is one that clearly shows they have been born again and know what they are talking about, tell them it's all about having Jesus as their Lord. As Paul said, if they confess Jesus as their Lord (which means really "boss") and believe God raised him from the dead, they will be saved. There are more statements in the Bible Jesus made on being saved, but if you are dealing with someone who does not know much or anything, you need to be cautious about loading them down with too much.

Really, remember, to be in the Kingdom of God Jesus said you must be born of water and the spirit, you must do his father's will, you must be like little children (in your innocent faith), you must hear Jesus' word and believe him who sent Jesus (e.g., hear obviously means believe, not just listen to but believe; of course God the father is the one who sent Jesus), and of course you must just believe Jesus. See the scriptures in John 3:5, Matthew 7:21-23, Matthew 18:3, John 5:24, John 3:16.

That's a lot I just went through. But the times are short. And they are increasingly tough. To top that, many are scared today and many just don't know what is going on. But you do. So you can help others to the extent possible, always relying on the guidance of the Holy Spirit).

May you live in the blessings of God always.

And always, KEEP YOUR EYES ON JESUS!
